

basis.point is the Irish Fund industry's initiative to come together to help make a difference to those in need by supporting charities that focus on education.

Empower parents to give their child the best start in education

(ELI and Archways)

Enable children to engage meaningfully in education

(Suas, TUD Foundation)

Enhance the chances of success for young adults

(Foroige and Business in the Community)

49

families from challenging home environments have participated in the ParentChild+ programme influencing the lives of almost 150 children in association with the Early Learning Initiative of the National College of Ireland

456

kids struggling with numeracy have been offered 1-1 mentoring through Suas and next year a further 1200 children from disadvantaged schools nationwide will participate in the programme

40

facilitators trained in the Incredible Years Basic Parents programme delivered through Archways, influence 150+ children through positive parenting

60

teachers trained in the Incredible Years classroom management programme through Archways, working with 1500+ children in classroom settings

60 mentors trained in the Mentoring for Achievement programme helping a further 100+ children offering 1-1 support during school

3000

+ teenagers living in disadvantaged communities or rural isolation have been offered the NFTE programme through Foróige

100

+ students have received mentoring through the Business In The Community programme – Alumni Network for former Mentors and Students was also established in 2019

400

+ junior cycle students introduced to third level education through STEM focused workshops with TU Dublin

Integral part of the Irish Funds Ecosystem 150+ companies with over 16,000 employees

Network of Industry Peers committed to breaking the cycle of disadvantage through education

200+

Individual Patrons and Supporters
gifting between €250 and €1000 per annum

100+

Corporate Patrons
for whom basis.point play a key role in their CSR solutions

50+

Friends and Volunteers with basis.point helping to run the charity since 2013

Social Responsibility Solution managed by industry experts with exemplary corporate governance

Annual member events defray majority of running expenses

1.9m

raised and committed to educational initiatives

5+

partner programmes with leading industry players

Inspirational Educators tailoring bespoke programmes nationwide

Multi year evidence based timely interventions throughout educational lifecycle

Become a Patron or Supporter and make a difference NOW visit us at www.basispoint.ie

